Suicide of Samuel Van Praag Attributed to Despondency.

Produce Exchange Member and Prominent in Shipping Circles.

Samuel Van Prang, forty-six years of age, of 101 West Eighty-fifth street, committed suicide this morning by shooting himself in the left breast with a Bt-calibre revolver. Despondency, due to filness, is assigned as the cause.

With the first of the year Mr. Van Praag completed sixteen years' service with the firm of Phelps Bros. & Co., steamship agents, of 29 Broadway. He was a member of the Produce Exchange, and had served on various committees. He was well known in shipping circles, and was regarded as a remarkably well-informed man on marine matters.

He was born in Germany, and came to this country when a lad. For several years he had suffered from a complication of diseases. He resigned his position on account of illness, He was a bachelor.

tion on account of illness. He was a bachelor.

Mr. Van Praag ived with five nephews and a niece in the swell apariment-house known as The Brockholft. For the past six months he had suffered from partial paralysis. This morning he requested that breakfast be sent to his room at 5 o'clock, and while the rest of the family were in the dining-room they heard the report of a revolver, and one of the sephews ran to his uncie's room. There Mr. Van Praag was found lying across the bed and dying.

Mr. Phelps, the head of the firm of Phelps Bros. & Co., was greatly surprised when informed of the suicide.

"We always found Mr. Van Praag a very reliable man." he said. "and the news of his suicide is a great shock. He was with us a great many years, and had a large number of friends. I doubt if there was a better versed or better known man in shipping circles."

same year, Dr. Jackson alleges that he treated, at Mr. De Grauw's request, a Mrs. F. Denette, who then resided at 1016 Lexington avenue.

Dr. Jackson values his services for his treatment of Mr. De Grauw at $1,750 and Mrs. Denette at $1,950, making a total of $3,710, which, he claims, is due him from Mr. De Grauw.

Being unable to collect the account, Dr. Jackson says that in December, 1895, he retained Lawyer William George Oppenheim to collect the bill. That he cut from his "Physicians' Register" the records of his visits and other facts bearing on this claim.

During February, 1894, Dr. Jackson says in his affidavit, Lawyer Oppenheim sent for him, and when he cailed at his office, the lawyer told him that if he would sign a letter to Mr. De Grauw, and one to Mrs. Denette, acknowledging that he had been paid, that he (Oppenheim) would give him some money.

Dr. Jackson says he declined to sign the letters, and Mr. Oppenheim refused to give up the clippings from his register.

Shortly after Dr. Jackson went to Europe, and since his return, has placed his case in the hands of Lawyer W. C. Stewart, of 35 Wall street, who brings the present action. Dr. Jackson says he is unable to file a bill of particulars because Mr. Oppenheim kept the records clipped from ms book.

Lawyer Oppenheim, when seen by an "Evening World" reporter to-day, dea close of carbone and taken by ma-take for headache medicine.

Counsellor Keasby then asked for an order, which was granted, directed to Edward S. Stokes and the officers of the Hoffman House corporation, for them to show cause why they should not be fined for contempt.

Vice-Chancellor Greene then declared the charter of the Hoffman House company, incorporated in the State of New Jerssy, revoked, and therefore null and void.

Neither Edward S. Stokes nor the officers of the corporation were represented in person or by counsel at the hearing to-day, vice-Chancellor Greene directed Receivers A. Oakey Hall and E. W. Ward to assume the liabilities and affairs of the Hoffman House corporation and wind up the same at once.

One of the officers of the Hoffman House comporation will be the desired that vice-Chancellor Greene's decree was a heavy frown on his face. He spoke to the crier and the latter announced that "Part III. of the Court of General Sessions of the Peace was a dejourned sine die.

"Oh, this will be the dearest election case Brooke & O'Sullivan ever defended," exclaimed an old lawyer. "The Recorder has the fixing of compensation to them for defending Dr. Meyer.

"They had things about as they liked them with the Recorder, and he would have allowed them $2,500 at least. Now, if they get a dollar or $1,000 it's velvet. The Recorder will not brook any seeming indifference to his court, and Charlie Hooke will have some tall explaining to do if he regains his place in the Recorder's good graves.

Dr. Meyer was handcuffed to a colored malefactor when he was ushered out of court to the prison van after the adjournment. When told that his sentence was postponed until August, he sighed deeply and then said:
"Oh, you must be mistaken. I am to get it before that. I couldn't help it. I was not to blame because my lawyers were not here."

"Which place would you prefer, Sing Sing or the Tombs?" asked the reporter. "I would prefer to be out," laughed Dr. Meyer. Then as he was shoved into the van, he added, "Where I will be soon! very soon, too!"

E. Pearsall, has signed an order transferring several cases of alleged violation of the excise laws from Justice of the Peace John M. Wilson, of Flatlands, Lawyer Oppenheim Accused of to the Grand Jury. It is claimed that Wilson is prejudiced. Some time ago the Police Commissioners of the town of Flatlands passed a resolution ordering that in the future warrants shall be served by the members of the police force of the town, instead of by the constables.

It is claimed that all of the Justices of the Peace except Wilson agreed to the Judge Dugro, of the Superior Court, to-day nedied the motion of Lawyer William Georgg Oppenheim, counsel for Walter N. De Grauw, jr., a wealthy cordage dealer of 24 South street, to compel Dr. Abram W. Jackson, of 827 Park avenue, to file a bill of particulars in an action he has pending against Mr. De Grauw.

In his affidavit opposing the motion Dr. Jackson says that between March and November, 1893, he treated Mr. De Grauw for a disease not mentioned. Between March 12 and Sept. 2 of the same year, Dr. Jackson alleges that he treated, at Mr. De Grauw's request, a Mrs. F. Denette, who then resided at Mrs. F. Denette, Mr dle of indictments a presentment in the matter of the investigation into the Ward's Island Insane Asylum. The Grand Jury found after examining many witnesses that there had been, in its opinion, no maladministration in the management of the institution on the part of the officials, but declared that the buildings were deplorably too inadepuate to accommodate the number of inmates harbored there. The investigation showed further while the physicians and attendants are hampered by the lack of proper facilities, their treatment of the patients is uniformly humane and considerate.
